

Participation in the Shareholders' Meetings of 19 May 2020 (*)

Principle

In order to participate in the General Meeting, Company shareholders must comply with article 34 of the Articles of Association.

The shareholders can participate in person or be represented by a proxy.

Those natural persons who will be participating in their capacity as shareholders or as proxy or as a representative of a corporate body must provide proof of their identity in order to be allowed access to the Meeting. Furthermore, representatives of corporate bodies must be able to provide proof of their status of representative or proxy.

Registration of the participants in the Meeting will commence at 14.00 hrs. Participants are requested to register at least 15 minutes before the Meeting.

Right to Ask Questions

As soon as the notice convening the Meeting is published, those shareholders who fulfil the necessary requirements to be allowed to attend the Meeting can submit questions in writing, which will be answered during the Meeting by the directors or the auditor, depending on the case.

All the questions must be received by the Company in writing by electronic means and this at the latest by 17.00 hrs on 13 May 2020.

Right to Submit Agenda Items

One or several shareholders, who either separately or jointly represent at least 3% of the shareholders' equity, have the right to submit items to be included on the agenda of the General Meeting, and also have the right to submit motions for resolution relating to items on the agenda to be discussed.

This right does not apply to a General Meeting that is postponed due to failure to reach the required quorum. The requests must be submitted to the Company by electronic means at the latest by 17.00 hrs on 27 April 2020.

The Company will acknowledge receipt of the requests within 48 hours from receipt.

The Company will publish the full agenda at the latest on the 15th day before the date of the General Meeting.

Formalities

Registration Date 5 May 2020 midnight CET

Only those shareholders holding shares on the date of registration will have the right to participate in the Meeting.

(*) depending on the evolution of the Covid-19 situation in the coming weeks and the current Belgian regulations applicable to the organisation of shareholders' meetings and measures of the National Security Council, the Company may communicate further in relation to the organisation of the General Shareholders' Meeting by means of a press release.

Share Registration procedure

Holders of registered shares must inform the Company at the latest by 13 May 2020 of their intention to attend, using the form issued to them.

The Company will check the shareholders against the share register on the date of registration.

Holders of dematerialised shares must report at the latest by 13 May 2020 through the intermediary of their financial institution. By 13 May 2020 at the latest, Euroclear Belgium (ebe.issuer@euroclear.com) must have received confirmation from the financial institution with regard to the identity and the number of shares with which the shareholder has registered.

The shareholding will be checked based on the confirmation received by Euroclear Belgium from the financial institution.

The Board of Directors will compile a register which will include the identification details of every shareholder who has expressed a wish to participate in the General Meeting, as well as the number of shares in their possession on the date of registration and with which they wish to participate in the General Meeting, as well as the documents that prove their share ownership on the date of registration.

Notification of Participation

Besides the registration procedure, the shareholders must also notify the Company, and this at the latest on the 6th day before the date of the meeting (13 May 2020), that they intend to participate in the Meeting. This notification must be made in writing to the address below.

Representation

The companies and shareholders can opt to be represented by a proxy. A proxy form is available upon simple request to the Company's registered office or can be downloaded from www.exmar.be. Only these proxy forms will be accepted.

The shareholders must ensure that the proxy form reaches the Company's registered office by 13 May 2020 at the latest (see address below) or by electronic means (corporate@exmar.be).

Only the proxy forms of those shareholders who fulfil all of the registration requirements will be accepted.
